

HTM6001 Residential Workshop

| | |
|----------------------------|----------------------|
| Subject Name | Residential Workshop |
| Subject Code | HTM6001 |
| No. of Credits | 0 credit |
| Total Contact Hours | 20 hours (2 days) |
| Prerequisite | None |

Subject Description

This is a zero-credit, mandatory workshop for all incoming D.HTM students.

1. Philosophy and aims and expectations of the D.HTM;
2. Administrative duties and functions and academic regulations;
3. Introduction to the facilities and resources are available at PolyU;
4. Review research knowledge and analytical skills needed for doctoral studies;
5. Team building activities.

Subject Outcomes

1. Discuss the philosophy and aims and expectations of the D.HTM;
2. Have met and become acquainted with fellow students;
3. Understand the administrative duties and functions associated with the D.HTM;
4. Have been introduced to the facilities and resources are available at PolyU;
5. Have become familiarized with research knowledge and analytical skills needed for doctoral studies.

Assessment Weighting

Pass / Fail