The Tourist

Objectives

Tourism has been the focus of research for many years. How we think of tourism, conceptualize it and apply it in theory and practice are influenced by a range of ideas from disciplines other than business. This subject introduces students to tourism as a field of study by exploring tourism and the tourist from different perspectives. The subject will introduce students to core ideas and readings that have shaped the study of tourism.

Intended Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the subject, students will be able to:

A. Professional Competence
   - Develop a holistic view of tourism as a field of research and practice by analysing tourism in its broad social context.

B. Critical Thinkers
   - Assess, analyse and discuss the role of tourism and describe how different life cycle, life stage and lifestyle differences provide different opportunities for the providers of tourism services.

D. Innovative Problem Solvers
   - Identify and evaluate different disciplinary perspectives on tourism.

F. Ethical Leaders
   - Discuss how and why tourism is a socially selective activity and analyse why certain sectors of a community may be disadvantaged in accessing tourism opportunities.
